We were really pleased with these fantastic comments:

'My child has settled into reception really well and I believe that's down to his teachers.'

'I think that teachers are very good: they are patient and like their job which makes them perfect to teach my son.'

'Aveley Primary School is a good school with good reviews and nice teachers.'

'Overall, I like the school and the staff'

'I am very proud that the school managed to change and achieve a better education for the children.'

'They provide a good quality of education and parents are well-informed.'

'My children have all done well here.'

'My experience of the school has been very positive and I would happily recommend'

We have taken on board your comments, look forward to building on the strengths identified and acting on constructive feedback where appropriate.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs S. Viner
